Joanna (Burnham) Andrews, wife of Amos Andrews.<sup>5</sup>

Mrs. Andrews was a descendant of Thomas Burnham, one of three nephews of Capt. Robert Andrews, the owner and master of the good ship "Angel Gabriel," 240 tons burthen and carrying 14 guns. She sailed from Bristol, Eng., June 4, 1635, and touched at Milford Haven, in Wales, June 22. She was wrecked on the coast of Maine, August 15, 1635, but the crew and passengers were saved.

Capt. Andrews and his nephews came to Chebacco (now Essex, Mass.) and settled. John and Thomas remained in Chebacco, but their brother Robert went to Boston and later to Dover, N. H. Thomas married a Tuttle, and he had a son John, who had a son David, who had a son Westley. Westley Burnham married Deborah Story. They had a daughter Joanna, who married Amos Andrews of Ipswich, Mass. (See additional data on page 8.)

"At the age of 100 this remarkable woman was able to keep her own separate domestic establishment in the house of her grandson, and attended to her own wants. From that time her decay was as gradual and marked in retrogressive order by the same stages, as an infant's growth."—History of Gloucester.
